

KNOCKLOUGHRIM SCHOOL NEWS

28th
Nov.
2014

Welcome to our newsletter this week and the final one for November. Christmas is coming and all things festive are starting to appear around our community. Can I encourage you over the next few weeks to keep checking the newsletters or our website for more information on events and rehearsals.

Open Morning: Our annual opening morning will be held tomorrow morning in school from 10am until 12pm. I will be speaking to parents at 10.30am in the assembly hall. Please pass on this information to any of your friends or family who may be considering Knockloughrim for their child this September.

Teacher Appointment: On Wednesday our Board of Governors interviewed for a permanent teacher who will fill Mrs McIntyre's vacancy. I am pleased to say Mr. Montgomery has been appointed to that position and will remain with us for the foreseeable future. I'm sure you join with me in wishing him every success and blessing for the years ahead.

Breakfast with Santa:

On Saturday 6th December from 10am to 12pm. An order form went home earlier this week for families to order the tickets they require for this fun family event. Tickets will be available at the door. Our PTA are looking for parents who would be willing to help decorate our hall and grotto next Friday afternoon before the event or serve or direct parents and children on the morning. If you would be willing to help please give your name to Rhonda in our office. If anyone would have outdoor lights or decorations that we could borrow to help use to decorate the school for the morning please contact the office.

School Dinners: A new menu is being sent home this week for December. Due to Christmas dinners being transported in while Dorinda is off, we have had to change the planned date when we will be serving Christmas dinner to our children (now Wed. 10th Dec.) however children will continue to have a half day to mark the event on Friday 12th December. Apologies in advance for any confusion this may cause.

Christmas Carol Service &

Nativity: On Thursday 11th December at 7pm. we will be holding our Carol Service & Nativity in Knockloughrim Presbyterian Church Hall. On Monday 8th & Tuesday 9th we will be having our rehearsals in Knockloughrim Presbyterian Church Hall. There will be no Breakfast Club running on these two mornings that week as all pupils should be dropped off at Knockloughrim Presbyterian Church Hall on these mornings between 8.45 and 9.00am. Everyone should bring their own break as there will be no facility to provide break at 10.45am. We will return to school by bus in time for lunch. On Thursday 12th Dec. everyone will go home at 2pm. For our Carol Service we do not sell tickets, there will however be a retiring offering in aid of Marie Curie Cancer Care. Drivers are asked to plan to car share if possible, as parking is limited in the church car park and roads leading to the church.

Scripture Union (SU): Due to the commitment being placed upon Mrs Yvonne Lennox by other schools she is only available to lead Scripture Union for one term this year. We are really sorry about this and yet understand how fortunate we have been in the past. Our Parents & Friends group are looking at a way in which we as a school could fill in for Yvonne in her absence. Volunteers are being sought to help cover and share seven or eight Monday afternoons from Mid January to Mid March from 2-4pm in school so our children can have SU. Please leave your name in the office if you are available to assist with this.
